We help you thrill your audience!

Conor Cunneen

Travels from: Illinois

Fee Range: $5,001 - $7,500

This lyrical Irishman will leave you and your colleagues with a smile on the face, a spring in the step, a beat in the heart (which healthcare professionals know is important) AND implementable concepts to improve motivation, morale and the workplace.

Conor Cunneen is an Irishman happily exiled in Chicago where he says the natives are friendly, the winters are (ahem) chilly and he has been force fed more corned beef and green beer than he ever had in Ireland!

Conor is a two-time cancer survivor (thyroid and prostate) who has nurses and healthcare professionals laughing and learning from Denver to Dublin. (Ohio and Ireland.) "Having had a thyroidectomy and a prostatectomy, I now have an Irish condition known as 'there is not much left-o-me.' "

This easygoing educator combines management skills learned in Europe and USA with an Irish wit and humor that that will have you Learning and Laughing and just as importantly - implementing concepts for a better workplace. When you see Conor present clear, compelling messages via hilarious anecdotes and stories, you will not be surprised to know he is a Chicago Humorous Speaker of the Year. Would you believe Conor's winning speech was on "Customer Service...in San Quentin prison?"

Book Conor today to see how he keeps his E4 Brand Promise: Energize, Educate, Entertain and Easy to work with.
