

CAPITOL CITY SPEAKERS BUREAU

We help you thrill your audience!

James Lloyd

Travels from: California

Fee Range: $5,001 - $7,500

James is the current president of 9 Screens International and is a featured keynote speaker and organizational training and development consultant whose powerful keynotes, training sessions, and workshops have captivated audiences around the world. James' unique storytelling ability pulls in the audience with humor, insight and motivation. His most requested topics specialize in customer service, leadership and organizational issues.

James presents to a vast array of industries across the United States and abroad. His extensive background in healthcare leads him to speak to hospitals, insurance agencies, educators and private clinics that focus on a broad range of topics - from personal potential to customer service - inspiring performance and addressing industry-specific concerns, including malpractice and patient services; however, his message is universal across industries and he has with the ability to envision, create and implement finely-honed motivational presentations designed to educate and challenge conference event attendees in a relaxed and interactive environment.

James has published two books, I'm on Fire, Watch me Burn!, and Torch Tips for a Luminous Life and has developed and delivered three Continuing Education (CE) courses utilized by health insurance agents to fulfill State of California continuing licensure requirements.

Most Requested Programs...

- Jackpot: Maximizing Our Chances for Success
- Dazzling Service
- Loyalty
- Great Full!
- Yield to New Ideas
- Taking Care of Business
- Passing the Spark: Motivating Others