What is a Keynote Concert?

The best speakers use stories to illustrate their points. Jana Stanfield, CSP anchors her content with stories, humor and songs that are targeted to the goals of the group. Reflecting her background as a television news reporter, humorist, author and entertainer, Jana's Keynote Concerts provide an interactive experience that:

- Generates an upbeat attitude in attendees
- Energizes people to be their best
- Increases enthusiasm through laughter

What is Jana's Core Message?

"How can you tell if you're on the right path?" Jana Stanfield asks. "Look for the orange barrels. I believe that we are explorers on the journey of a lifetime. By teaching people how to stay brave and keep joy in this journey, I can strengthen them to make the difference they're here to make."

About Jana Stanfield, CSP

The letters CSP indicate a Certified Speaking Professional with proven experience who understands what is required and knows how to deliver client satisfaction. Demonstrating the universal appeal of her wisdom, music, and humor, Jana has delivered her Keynote Concerts in the United States, Canada, the Bahamas, Australia, New Zealand, and Thailand.

Million-Selling Songwriter

You've heard Jana's music on 20/20, Entertainment Tonight, Oprah, and radio stations nationwide, sung by Reba McEntire and many others. Fans describe her music as "heavy mental" or "psychotherapy you can dance to." Jana's songs "What Would I Do Today If I Were Brave" and "If I Had Only Known" raise money for the Girl Scouts, the Muscular Dystrophy Association, St. Jude's Children's Hospital and many other charitable organizations. She has performed on stages from the Grand Ole Opry to the Jerry Lewis Telethon, with performers ranging from Kenny Loggins to the Dixie Chicks.

Entrepreneur

With the motto "Start Small, Dream Big, Live Large," Jana Stanfield started a record company in 1991 on her dining room table. Selling over 100,000 CDs since then has made Relatively Famous Records one of the most successful businesses of its kind.
