Kathy Brown is a dynamic keynote speaker who energizes, enlightens and inspires her audiences to make the most of every moment.

She is an award winning communicator who helps you learn how to create a positive emotional environment, improve communication, manage stress, build relationships and promote a healthier lifestyle. Kathy uses humor that results in contagious laughter which turns into an epidemic of fun that infects others to take action.

Kathy customizes her presentations with relevant information specific to the topic requested. She uses examples and stories that make a point to illustrate the learning objective. She will take you from communication to connection to engagement to conversations to questions.

Kathy will help you learn communication skills, both verbal and non-verbal, that will assist you in building meaningful relationships both personally and professionally.

An accomplished author, her first book, Living Happily Ever Laughter...A Guide To Thinking Funny In A Fast Paced World, is a fun motivational cartoon gift book in its third printing. Kathy's second book, I Only Have A Minute...So Let's Make It Matter, is about crafting a life that brings more significance to the moments in your life. You will find tools for living life on purpose with more joy, laughter, peace and contentment that seem elusive in today's stress filled world. Kathy is also a contributing author in Chicken Soup For The Nurse's Soul, Second Dose.
